

Showing Contrast

1. However:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a statement that contrasts with or seems to contradict something that has been said previously.
- Example: "The weather was forecast to be sunny. However, it started raining in the afternoon."

2. Nevertheless:

- Explanation: Used to indicate that something happened or is true even though something else might have prevented it.
- Example: "She was very tired. Nevertheless, she finished her homework."

3. On the other hand:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a contrasting point of view or situation.
- Example: "Living in the city offers many conveniences. On the other hand, it can be quite noisy and crowded."

4. Conversely:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a statement or idea that reverses one that has just been made or referred to.
- Example: "He is usually punctual. Conversely, his brother is often late."

5. Nonetheless:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a fact or opinion that contrasts with the previous statement, but does not negate it.
- Example: "The hike was challenging. Nonetheless, everyone enjoyed it."

6. In contrast:

- Explanation: Used to compare two things or situations and highlight the differences between them.
- Example: "In contrast to her calm demeanor, her brother was always anxious and restless."

7. Although:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a statement that makes the main statement in a sentence seem surprising or unexpected.
- Example: "Although it was cold, we decided to go for a walk."

8. Despite:

- Explanation: Used to show that something happened or is true even though there was something that might have prevented it.
- Example: "Despite the heavy rain, the match continued."