

For Clarifying:

1. That is to say:

- Explanation: Used to introduce a rephrased, more precise, or more detailed explanation of something previously mentioned.
- Example: "The project needs to be completed soon, that is to say, by the end of this month."

2. In other words:

- Explanation: Used to restate something in a different way to make it clearer or more understandable.
- Example: "The system is inefficient. In other words, it wastes a lot of time and resources."

3. To clarify:

- Explanation: Used to introduce additional information or an explanation to make something clearer.
- Example: "We need to review the budget proposal. To clarify, this means going over each line item to ensure accuracy."
