

Time

1. Meanwhile:

- Explanation: Used to indicate that something is happening at the same time as something else.
- Example: "I was preparing dinner. Meanwhile, the kids were doing their homework."

2. During:

- Explanation: Used to specify a period of time in which something happens.
- Example: "She read a book during the flight."

3. Before:

- Explanation: Used to indicate that one event or action happens earlier than another.
- Example: "Make sure to check your email before you leave the office."

4. After:

- Explanation: Used to indicate that one event or action happens later than another.
- Example: "We went for ice cream after the movie."

5. Subsequently:

- Explanation: Used to describe something that happens after a particular event.
- Example: "She finished her degree. Subsequently, she started working at a law firm."

6. Eventually:

- Explanation: Used to describe something that happens after a period of time, often after some delays.
- Example: "After years of hard work, he eventually became the CEO of the company."

7. In the meantime:

- Explanation: Used to describe something that happens in the intervening time between two events.
- Example: "The new software will be ready in a month. In the meantime, you can continue using the current version."

8. Soon:

- Explanation: Used to indicate that something will happen in a short amount of time.
- Example: "The concert will start soon, so please take your seats."