

For Emphasizing:

1. Indeed:

- Explanation: Used to reinforce a preceding statement, confirming it and adding emphasis.
- Example: "The new policy has been very successful. Indeed, customer satisfaction has increased by 20%."

2. In fact:

- Explanation: Used to introduce additional information that confirms and emphasizes the preceding statement.
- Example: "She is a talented musician. In fact, she can play five different instruments."

3. Certainly:

- Explanation: Used to emphasize that a statement is true or that an action will definitely happen.
- Example: "He is certainly one of the best players on the team."

4. Of course:

- Explanation: Used to emphasize that a statement is obvious or expected.
- Example: "Of course, we will support any decision you make."

5. Undoubtedly:

- Explanation: Used to emphasize that there is no doubt about the truth of a statement.
- Example: "She is undoubtedly the best candidate for the job."